

Lumesis, Inc. July 2015 DIVER Geo Scores Released

Proprietary Score Shines Spotlight on the Pace of Economic Growth across Florida

STAMFORD, CT - August 04, 2015

Lumesis, Inc. DIVER Geo Score results for July 2015 have been released. The DIVER Geo Score is a relative score of the economic health of a U.S. state, county or city. Based on a scale of 0-10, with 10 being the best, the Geo Score is calculated from multiple economic and demographic factors related to employment, income and housing and is updated monthly. The Geo Score helps market participants understand the economic health of every state, county and over 350 cities in a simple score.

"The pace of economic growth across Florida's cities has varied widely: Miami and Orlando have outperformed, while Fort Lauderdale has lagged." said Michael Craft, Managing Director of Credit at Lumesis, Inc.
