

Lumesis, Inc. November 2015 DIVER Geo Scores Released

Proprietary Score Shines Spotlight on Florida and New Jersey

STAMFORD, CT - December 03, 2015

Lumesis, Inc. DIVER Geo Score results for November 2015 have been released. The DIVER Geo Score is a relative score of the economic health of a U.S. state, county or city. Based on a scale of 0-10, with 10 being the best, the Geo Score is calculated from multiple economic and demographic factors related to employment, income and housing and is updated monthly. The Geo Score helps market participants understand the economic health of every state, county and over 350 cities in a simple score.

"Over the last year, the economy of the State of Florida has shown the most improvement. New Jersey's economic growth continues to be tepid when compared with other States." said Michael Craft, Managing Director of Credit at Lumesis, Inc.
