

Lumesis, Inc. December 2015 DIVER Geo Scores Released

Proprietary Score Shines Spotlight on California and Florida

STAMFORD, CT – January 5, 2016

Lumesis, Inc. DIVER Geo Score results for December 2015 have been released. The DIVER Geo Score is a relative score of the economic health of a U.S. state, county or city. Based on a scale of 0-10, with 10 being the best, the Geo Score is calculated from multiple economic and demographic factors related to employment, income and housing and is updated monthly. The Geo Score helps market participants understand the economic health of every state, county and over 350 cities in a simple score.

"Cities in California and Florida dominate the list of cities showing economic improvement. Above average improvement in foreclosure rates and employment markets are a common theme. " said Michael Craft, Managing Director of Credit at Lumesis, Inc.
