

Lumesis, Inc. October 2016 DIVER Geo Scores Released

Proprietary Score Shines Spotlight on New Mexico, Arizona and Texas

STAMFORD, CT – November 9, 2016

Lumesis, Inc. DIVER Geo Score results for October 2016 have been released. The DIVER Geo Score is a relative score of the economic health of a U.S. state, county or city. Based on a scale of 0-10, with 10 being the best, the Geo Score is calculated from multiple economic and demographic factors related to employment, income and housing and is updated monthly. The Geo Score helps market participants understand the economic health of every state, county and over 350 cities in a simple score.

"We take a close look at Arizona, New Mexico and Texas and, the bottom line is the economy matters." said Jane Ma, Senior Data and PM Analyst for Lumesis, Inc.
